Benefit Barrel and Pole Race for Kris Bina

Kristi Bina, after showing symptoms inconsistent with her personality, was taken to Sanford in Fargo by a friend. She received an MRI which revealed a large mass on her brain. Two days later, she had a biopsy, and weeks later received her diagnosis of stage III brain cancer. On May 10th, she had surgery to remove the portion of the tumor that was accessible without doing further harm. She is currently undergoing radiation treatments and once those are complete will do six rounds of chemotherapy. She is in good spirits, as always, and determined to get better!
